Dobrodošli u KoBSON

Edukacija doktoranata i istraživaća u Arheološkom institutu u Beogradu

U utorak, 07. juna, u Arheološkom institutu u Beogradu odrŹaće se edukacija studenata doktorskih studija. Edukacija poćinje u 10h i traje tri školska ćasa. Predavaći su Aleksandra Popović i Stela Filipi-Matutinović, Univerzitetska biblioteka "Svetozar Marković".
(objavljeno 06.06.2011.)

Ukinut pristup ProQuest servisu

Nakon probnog perioda (koji je trajao do 10.01.2011. god.) za ProQuest Central bazu, nije obnovljena pretplata za istu. Trenutno nemamo pristup ćasopisima preko ovog servisa.

PONOVO RADI PubMed

Pristup sajtu www.ncbi.nlm.nih.gov (National Center for Biotechnology, u okviru kog je i PubMed) je blokiran od strane administratora sajta za opseg adresa proxy servera iz Srbije: 147.91.1.41 - 147.91.1.45. Razlog ove blokade je napad koji je višren na ove proxy servere, odnosno neki korisnik AMRES-a je sakupljao informacije preko skripta ćime je ugrozio funkcionisanje sistema samog sajta, a AMRES doveo na 'black' listu i onemogućio ostalim korisnicima pristup.

Dok se ovaj problem ne reši, a na kome intenzivno rade kolege iz AMRES-a, korisnicima preporučujemo jednu od dve mogućnosti:

- (1) iz podešavanja vašeg Internet browsera iskljućite proxy server
- (2) koristite Medline preko EBSCO servisa

(objavljeno 17.05.2011.)

Načini pristupa

Kome je KoBSON dostupan

KoBSON portal dostupan je bez ikakve nadoknade i autentifikacije svima sa akademskog IP domena u Srbiji. Neophodno je u internet browser-u podesiti proxy server odgovarajućeg univerziteta.

Od 2004. godine korisnicima je omogućen i udaljeni pristup ("od kuće", posredstvom komercijalnog provajdera) i to pod istim uslovima kao i iz IP prostora akademske mreže. Praćenje korišćenosti KoBSONa ukazuje da oko 30% naših korisnika koristi informacione izvore izvan uobičajenog radnog vremena (noću, vikendom, praznikom). U ovom režimu do danas imamo registrovanih 9500 istraživača iz Srbije, što je oko trećine ukupnog broja registrovanih istraživača prema poslednjem popisu Republičkog zavoda za statistiku.

Pristup sa akademskog IP domena

Sadržaji KoBSON-a dostupni su svim istraživačima koji rade u akademskim i naučnim institucijama povezanih na Akademska mrežu Srbije / AMRES. Adrese proxy servera na univerzitetima u Srbiji su:

Univerzitet u Beogradu i Kragujevcu	proxy.rcub.bg.ac.rs	147.91.1.45
Univerzitet u Novom Sadu	proxy.uns.ac.rs	147.91.173.31

Podešavanje Opere

Odabrati Tools -> Preferences -> Advanced -> Network -> Proxy Servers, markirati polje HTTP i upisati jednu od gore od navedenih IP adresa. U polje predviđeno za port upisati 8080.

Za starije verzije Opere podešavanje je isto, ali se vrši iz menija File (umesto Tools).

Pristup od "kuće"

Kompletan pristup KobSON servisu moguć je i preko komercijalnih provajdera (ADSL, kablovski, dial-up i sl.). Jedini dopunski zahtev sastoji se u tome da korisnik potpiše licencu kojom se obavezuje da će se pridržavati pravila korišćenja. Pravo na ličnu licencu imaju svi zaposleni u akademskim i naučnim institucijama čiji je osnivač Republika Srbija, kao i stipendisti Ministarstva nauke. Dobijanje licence je besplatno.

Popunjena i potpisana Licenca, predaje se Centru za naučne informacije Narodne biblioteke Srbije ili (eventualno) bibliotekaru institucije (korisnici iz Beograda Licencu moraju predati lično, ili preko bibliotekara institucije; korisnici iz unutrašnjosti popunjenu i potpisanu Licencu mogu poslati poštom, na adresu: Narodna biblioteka Srbije, Centar za naučne informacije, ul. Skerlićeva br. 1, 11000 Beograd, ili skeniranu putem e-mail-a). Posle otvaranja naloga na e-mail adresu navedenu u Licenci, korisnik prima e-mail sa dodeljenim korisničkim imenom i šifrom. Nakon toga, prijavljivanje možete obaviti izborom opcije Udaljeni pristup u desnom gornjem uglu ekrana.

NALOG ZA OTVARANJE LIČNOG KORISNIČKOG IMENA NA SERVERU NARODNE BIBLIOTEKE SRBIJE

Molimo Vas da pažljivo pročitate sledeću licencu u kojoj su navedena pravila korišćenja Vašeg naloga.

Pre upotrebe svog naloga u Narodnoj biblioteci Srbije potvrđujem sledeće:

- ❖ Ja sam u ovom trenutku zaposlen/-a na Univerzitetu ili Institutu čiji je osnivač Republika Srbija.
- ❖ Preuzete članke ću koristiti samo za svoj vlastiti akademski rad radi dostizanja naučnog zvanja, podučavanja studenata, ili u istraživanjima koja finansiraju vlada ili neprofitne organizacije, a koja su namenjena objavljivanju u javno dostupnoj literaturi.
- ❖ NEĆU PREUZIMATI na svoj računar celokupne sveske časopisa (puni tekst časopisa, od korica do korica), jer je to protivno potpisanoj licenci.
- ❖ NEĆU KORISTITI preuzete članke za komercijalna istraživanja, npr. za istraživanja koja se sprovode u okviru konsultantskih ugovora i čiji se rezultati dostavljaju profitnim organizacijama, ili za istraživanja koja mogu dovesti do patenta.
- ❖ Koristiću rezultate pretraga u skladu sa uobičajenom praksom za akademska istraživanja, i poznato mi je da ih mogu čuvati u elektronskoj formi. Rezultate pretraživanja mogu da delim sa drugim studentima i zaposlenima na Univerzitetu na ograničen, razuman način.

ovog naloga, i da će ti podaci biti korišćeni samo za zbirno praćenje korišćenja elektronskih izvora.

❖ Poznato mi je da će mi pristup elektronskim servisima biti onemogućen, ukoliko svoj nalog budem koristio/la suprotno navedenim pravilima.

❖ Poznato mi je da je Licenca za upotrebu baza važeća na teritoriji Republike Srbije, i da kršenje licence od strane bilo kog korisnika može dovesti do raskida ugovora za sve korisnike iz Srbije.

Spisak svih časopisa koji su na neki način dostupni u bibliotekama Srbije (bilo elektronski, bilo u papirnoj formi). Prisustvo časopisa na toj listi je samo pokazatelj njegove dostupnosti, a nikako kvaliteta.

Važno

Zabranjeno je preuzimanje svih radova iz jedne sveske časopisa (od korica do korica) jer bi to moglo dovesti do ukidanja pristupa tom servisu celoj akademskoj zajednici Srbije.

Nationalism, Politics, and the Development of Archaeology in Iran

KAMYAR ABDI

Abstract

The relationship between nationalism, politics, and the development and practice of archaeology has recently become a popular topic among archaeologists. This paper reviews the relationship between nationalism, political developments, and the rise and progress of archaeology in Iran from the mid 19th century to the present. The Iranian reaction to foreign interference is investigated here, and the role Iran's past has played in reinforcing nationalist sentiments is explored. It is argued that whenever the political situation provided a favorable environment, intellectuals and politicians, in various capacities, have exploited the archaeological and historical record, especially those of the Achaemenid and Sasanian empires, to advocate their nationalist agendas. This paper concludes with an assessment of the recent manifesta by foreign expeditions to a halt. Of the European, Japanese, and North American archaeologists who were active in Iran, the younger generation has sought fieldwork opportunities elsewhere, and the senior generation has tried to publish the results of their research before retirement or death. Although this hiatus during the Iranian revolution fostered many symposia and numerous publications, which in all possibility would not have materialized if fieldwork had continued in Iran, one should not ignore the fact that very few new archaeologists have been trained in Iranian archaeology, and courses on the archaeology of Iran have been icula. Preface

This is not the first book to address Chesapeake archaeology. Just over a century ago, in 1894, William Henry Holmes completed a manuscript on the archaeology of the greater Chesapeake region. Between the covers of the Fifteenth Annual Report, Bureau of Ethnology, 1893-1894, which was issued several years later in 1897, he would describe and interpret regional archaeology as it was then known. While Holmes had a number of agendas in the production of that volume, his book stands as the first comprehensive presentation of Chesapeake prehistory. Today the publication is rightfully acknowledged as a landmark in early American archaeology. Nevertheless, this text has now collected the dust of almost a century. Even Holmes would be astounded at what has since been unearthed across the region, and at the changes in archaeology today.

ACTOR

ACTOR

In Jungian psychology, the persona—the side of ourselves that we present to the world—is portrayed as an actor. Unless we are somehow involved in actual acting or have unrealized ambitions to act, dreams in which we or others appear as actors tend to refer to the persona. As with other symbols, much depends on the overall tone of the dream. When they are unpleasant, acting dreams frequently refer to situations in which we feel forced to “put on an act” or situations in which we feel ourselves acting out the expectations of others.

or foggy) may be a commentary on one's ideas or communications.

AIRPLANE

Airplanes in dreams may carry the same connotations as air (e.g., ideas, intellect) or simply represent flying dreams. Particularly if one is the pilot, an airplane may represent one's body, freedom, the power to “rise above” a situation, soaring to new heights, or even escape from everyday concerns.

AIRPORT

Some new idea or venture may be ready to take off. If planes can't get off the ground, the venture may be grounded for awhile. An airport can also represent a transition in one's life.

Children frequently experience nightmares when they sleep. In fact, they tend to experience many more dreams in which they are victims of violence than adults do.

related emotions are twice as frequent in the dreams of young children when compared to the dreams of adults. This may be, in part, because children often feel that they have no control over their waking lives. They are anxious about their ability to control external events, and this feeling is reflected in the content of their dreams.

One of the leading researchers into the phenomena of nightmares is Ernest Hartmann. He developed a theory of "boundaries" regarding the laboratory studies of two groups of fourteen children, but his study came to include approximately forty in total after additional subjects were added to replace those who dropped out. While Foulkes believed that the only reliable representation of dreams comes from laboratory research, his evidence is in disagreement with the general psychiatric opinion.

Studies have discovered several traits common in children's dreams. One of the more remarkable characteristics is that children seem to have significantly more nightmares in which they are the victims of violence. Nightmares in which the dreamer is pursued, whether by monsters, strangers, or wild animals, are the most common type of dreams with negative content. There is also a general lack of pleasant exchanges; this is especially true for boys. Fear and fear-have always been preoccupied with dreams and dream interpretation. Specially designated ritual specialists were considered particularly significant. In the pre-conquest period, indigenous curers attributed their calling to dreams, and dream specialists were employed for prognostication by the state.

QUECH

Dreams are regarded by contemporary Quechua as premonitory signs about events of the day on which they are dreamed. They are said to be world-creating, in that they literally forecast an event. Generally, under normal circumstances, a person arises from sleep by standing first on the right foot, but when a bad omen appears in a dream, one stands first on the left foot.

QUICHE

In addition, dreams can be treated as a narrative from which particular elements are chosen and interpreted according to a lexicon of dream signs, which supplies a general conventional meaning for each. Selecting readily discernible dream signs and taking individual situational factors into account allows for a more specific interpretation, although the interpretation may have absolutely nothing to do with the manifest content of the narrative apart from the interpreted signs.

For the Quiche Maya, a patrilineal and patrilocal people located in twenty-six different communities across Guatemala, ancestors are important beings whose visitation in a dream is most often described as a positive experience, although they

PERLS, FRITZ

I have appeared to you to appoint you as a servant and as a witness of what you have seen of me and what I will show you. I will rescue you from the Gentiles. I am sending you to them to open their eyes and turn from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan to God, so that they may receive forgiveness of sins and a place among those who are sanctified by faith in me. (Acts 26:16–18)

When Paul got up from the ground, he discovered that he was blind, and he was not able to see for three days. He had previously received a vision of Ananias, a certain devout disciple in Damascus: "In a vision he has seen a man named Ananias come and place his hands on him to restore his sight" (Acts 9:12). After this, God appeared to Ananias and instructed him about his role in fulfilling the vision given to Paul. App

One night the Lord spoke to Paul in a vision: "Do not be afraid; keep on speaking, do not be silent. For I am with you and no one is going to attack and harm you, because I have many people in this city." (Acts 18:9)

This dream vision encouraged Paul and prevented him from leaving Corinth.

Paul's final dream vision was a message from Jesus in which he encouraged Paul to "take courage! As you have testified about me in Jerusalem, so you must also testify in Rome" (Acts 23:11). This vision assured Paul that he had not yet finished his work, and helped him decide to go to Rome.

FREUD, SIGMUND

Sigmund Freud (1856–1939) was the founder of psychoanalysis and one of the great thinkers of this century. As a practicing medical doctor, Freud became interested in the role of the mind in disease. Partially as a result of his work with patients afflicted with hysteria (a psychosomatic illness), as well as his training in hypnosis under the brilliant French neurologist J. Martin Charcot, Freud was led to specialize in psychological disturbances. His early theorizing about the sexual origins of mental illness was scandalous to contemporaneous polite society, and it was many
